that the closing balance of the District Board stands just about the minimum. On the score of lack of funds the Dt Board is getting grants-in-aid from Government year after year even for such obligatory works as the maintenance of District fund roads. (Bababuru Hill road.) The contribution now in question is proposed to be an annually recurring charge on the income of the Board.

Resolution:- The Board are of opinion that the idea of establis-ing an Economic Museum at Hosakoppa is a laudable one, They, however consider that with a view to lend permanency to the -- Institution it would be more advisible for the Board to bear part of the annual recurring expenditure , the originators of the Scheme raising sufficient funds to meet all initial expen--diture involved. It was accordingly resolved that an annual grant of Rs.150/- be sanctioned from the District Funds towards the recurring expenditure after the museum was placed on a per--manent and satisfactory basis by the influential committee which has been formed for the purpose.
